Sir,

I am a native of Ananthasayanaqudi village in Hospet Taluk Bellary district. I was arrested on 9th September 1942, and have been kept as a detenu in this jail, under the Defence of India Rules.

Government for the bare maintenance of my family. The average expenditure of my family per month will be Rs 25/-.

I, therefore, request you to kindly

My family consists of my wife Rakma Bai, two children 8 & 6 years old respectively and an old aunt. My people are put to great difficulties by my detention as they are deprived of my support. There is none else to support my family. As I have been kept under detention it is hard and Besides this I have insured my life with the Empire of India Insurance Company and the Premium has to be paid by me. I am herewith enclosing a demand notice from the concerned agent.

Honoured sir,

detinue No. 527 in Vellore Jail - Grant of family maintenance - requested.

The applicant is the wife of Sri.K. Srinivasachar, B.A.B.L. Advocate of Hospet who is now a Detinue No. 527 in Vellore Jail. He was arrested under the Defence of India Act on or about 9-9-42. Since then his family consisting of the applicant, a son aged 8 years and a daughter aged 6 years have been finding it very hard to meet both ends meet as he was the only earning member of the family. He was a legal practitioner here. It is said that he ~~owns~~ owns small extents of land in N.D.Keri and Chilakananatti villages of this taluk. But owing to the adverse seasonal conditions this year, particularly in that tract practically nothing has been realised from them. It is learnt that the question of granting seasonal remissions in that tract is under contemplation.

The applicant has thus therefore nothing to fall back upon for her and the children's maintenance unless the Benign Government offers a helping hand. The two children are of the ~~xxx~~ School-going age and the applicant finds it difficult to meet their tuition fees which the detinue was meeting. Further the applicant is now in an advanced stage of pregnancy and she finds herself helpless for meeting the maternity expenses.

The applicant therefore begs to request the Government to grant her a regular monthly allowance of Rs. 75/- to maintain the family and to meet the incidental expenditure connected with the maternity. In this connection the applicant may be permitted to bring to the notice of the

3/4/43

pp. 21-22 ante | Memorandum No.3604-1, Public (General) Department dated 25-1-43.

I offer the following remarks in respect of the seven detenues:

pp. 3-4 ante

i) V. Hanumanthappa: This detainee has no landed property. He has a wife named Peddamma and two daughters named Nagamma and Huligemma. They are residing at Ananthasayanagudi village in the Hospet Taluk. His wife works as a cooly getting two annas a day. This is insufficient and she has nobody else to support her. Her two brothers are said to have --- joined military duty. I consider that this is a case of "absolute and proved necessity", and recommend the grant of a family allowance of -- Rs 14/- a month.

pp. 5-6 ante

ii) M. Narayana Rao: He is a native of Kottur town in the Kudligi Taluk. He was getting about Rs 30/- a month as a tailor. He has a mother, a ~~kkk~~ sister and a brother. They have a small house at Kottur and an extent of 50 cents of wet land. The income from the land is about Rs 10/- or ~~Rs 15/-~~ a year and this is quite insufficient for their maintenance. The detenus family was dependent on him and they are now deprived of every help. I consider that this is a case of "proved and absolute necessity," and recommend the grant of a family allowance of Rs 25/- a month.

pp. 7-8 ante

iii) T. Parasuramappa: He is a native of Kottur town. He was getting about Rs 30/- a month by tailoring. He has his parents, his wife and two younger sisters who were entirely dependent on the income of the detenu. They -- have left their only house at Kottur and gone to Ramasagaram village in the Hospet taluk. Now that the earning member has been detained, they have been deprived of any income. I consider that this is a case of "proved and absolute necessity" and recommend the grant of a family allowance of Rs 30/- a month.

pp. 9-10 ante

iv) S. Govindarow: he is a native of Kottur town. His family consists of his old father, his ~~kkk~~ wife and a child 3 years old. He has neither ---- moveable or ~~immovable~~ immovable property of his own. He was earning -- about Rs 30/- a month by tailoring and by his detention the family is on the verge of starvation. They live in a rented house upon the small amount they get by sewing jackets and caps. I consider that this is a case of "proved and absolute necessity" and recommend the grant of a family ---- allowance of Rs 25/- a month..

pp. 11-12 ante

v) B. Thimmappa: He used to earn about Rs 30/- a month as a barber at Kottur. He has his parents, his wife, and a son aged 15 years. He has no moveable or immovable property and his family is now doing cooly work and live on the small income they get with the utmost difficulty. I consider this case as of "proved and absolute necessity" and recommend the grant of a family allowance of Rs 25/- a month.

pp. 13-14 ante

vi) G. Bhimappa: He belongs to Ramasagaram village in the Hospet taluk. He has a wife and a child. They are now under the protection of his ~~kkkkkk~~ uncle Nagappa and the detainee's family are living in a joint family. The family is getting about Rs 400/- to Rs 500/- a year. I do not recommend the grant of any allowance in this case.

pp. 15-16, 19-20 + 23 ante

vii) K. Srinivasachar: He was an advocate practising at Hospet with an income of about Rs 100/- a month. He has got 2.23 acres of wet lands in Narayanadeverikeri and Vyasanakeri villages which are now waste because there is no supply in the tanks. His family consisting of his wife is maintained by his father-in-law who is a purohit. The detenu's wife, Rukmabai, who was in an advanced state of pregnancy has since given birth to a child. His father-in-law is too poor to maintain them any longer. I consider that this is a case of "proved and absolute necessity" and recommend the grant of a family allowance of Rs 25/- a month.

It is learnt that the question of granting seasonal remissions in that tract is under contemplation.

The applicant has thus therefore nothing to fall back upon for her and the children's maintenance unless the Benign Government offers a helping hand. The two children are of the ~~xxx~~ School-going age and the applicant finds it difficult to meet their tuition fees which the detinue was meeting. Further the applicant is now in an advanced stage of pregnancy and she finds herself helpless for meeting the maternity expenses.

The applicant therefore begs to request the Government to grant her a regular monthly allowance of Rs. 75/- to maintain the family and to meet the incidental expenditure connected with the maternity. In this connection the -- applicant may be permitted to bring to the notice of the notice of the Government a similar case appearing under Calicut news in the Hindu of 13-1-43, wherein the Government have sanctioned a monthly allowance of Rs.75/- to the wife of Sri.P.K.Kunhalankara Menon, a detainee in the same Vellore Jail as maternity allowance.

The applicant therefore requests that similar consideration may be given to ~~the~~ her request and the maintenance prayed for granted at an early date.

The applicant begs to remain

Sir
I am a permanent resident of Kothur town in Kudligi taluk in Bellary district and have been detained under the A.O.V rules since October 1942.

The Government sanctioned in last April, an allowance of Rs 25/- per month for my family maintenance. My family consists of my old father, my old mother, my wife and my son. I have been frequently informed that this allowance is very insufficient for the maintenance of my family in view of the rise of prices of food supply and other necessities of life. The maintenance of my family would require at least ^{roughly} fifty per month. As my detention is becoming prolonged and for an uncertain period, it is but just that my family should

...faced with at least the
... of life

Therefore, my next step is to increase my quantity of work. I

Sir,

Sub: Political Agitation - Civil ~~Disobedient~~ ^{Disobedience} Movement - Security Prisoner - Vadra Hanumantha of Ananthasayanagudi - Hosur Taluk - Payment of family allowance - Recommended.

1. 3-4
Vadra Peddavva wife of Security Prisoner, Vadra Hanumanthappa has put in a petition for payment of family allowances from 1-8-43 to 30-10-43 during which period her husband was released on parole. It is enclosed.

2. Vadra Hanumanthappa was first released on parole for two weeks on 21-8-43 as per orders contained in G.O.No.2359 Public (G1) Dept., dated 19-8-43. During the parole period, he applied for a month's extension, and the Government granted it in their Memo. No.46195/43-2 dated -- 23-9-43. Later he put in another petition for releasing him on security and also for extension of the parole period by another month or until the security is taken. While extending the parole period up to 15-11-43, the Government ordered in their Memo. No.50572-43-2 dated 20-10-43, that a bond be taken from the detenu and the fact reported. He appeared before me on 30-10-43 and executed the required bond; and this fact was reported to Government in this office D.Dis.706/43 Mgl. dated 9-11-43. A revised bond for Rs.400/- was also taken from him, as ordered in -- G.O.No.3365, Public Department, dated 20-11-43, and the fact reported in this office ref: No.1232/43-E-1, dated 28-12-43. (H)

The family allowance ordered in G.O.No.1077, Public (G1) Department p.t.o.

Department, 100-4-1143, was held up to 31-7-43; the prisoner, who came out of the jail on 31-7-43 in parole, was concerned to have been released from the jail from 30-10-43 when he furnished the required security and the undertaking. (Note: Handwritten note: "He never participated in any activities. The brothers have joined the army. His detention, and he developed a turnover on her chest and on his account he was released on parole. After condition of parole, he had his parole period extended twice, and finally he was released on living and he lived undertaking.")

During the period of his wife's illness, he could not work and he while on a sick leave started his living. I therefore recommended that his allowances, which were fixed in D.C. 1077/18-4-48, be ordered to be paid to him from 1-3-48 to 30-10-48 when he was on sick leave.

My husband was detained as a security prisoner in the Central Jail at Vellore for upwards of a year.
this period I was paid a family subsistence allowance of Rs.14/- for myself and two children. I did not receive the monthly allowance for 3 months from ^{August} ~~September~~ 43 to October 43. My husband was released on security on ^{we contracted} ~~uncontracted~~ debts for our subsistence when I did not receive the allowances. Also I fell seriously ill and much misery and suffering has been experienced for treatment medical aid in addition to ordinary living. My husband was released on parole for about a month and half but during this period he was strictly instructed by the Police not to move out or go for work. This put additional strain on the family which has no resources ^{or} and when the husband could not ^{go} for labour or work there was no other means of earning as he does not own any property and the family has to live release on parole and under surveillance with instructions not to move or go for work. The misery and plight ~~xxxxxx~~ of the family ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ under such circumstances can
